

Septemberfest

BBQ Cook-Off

Entry Form

Contest is Saturday, September 5, 2020 at the Elks Park Playground Pavilion. You may begin cooking the night of Friday, September 4 at midnight at the park and judging will be at 3:00pm on Saturday. If you need more information on cooking time, please notify Bethany or Natalie at 675-8211.

Competitors are responsible for supplying their own cooking equipment, tents, tables, and meats.

Meat must be cooked on location by whatever means you would like. You can marinate your meat the night before, but all cooking must be done on site. Cookers may not dig pits.

Teams must cook their favorite or best BBQ. This is open to chicken, beef, pork, ect. Serving dishes will be provided to you. Please wear a mask when possible and practice social distancing.

The judging will be done by a judging panel that has been preselected. There are no criteria for this cook off. Winners will be selected by the judge's favorite plates. There will be a cash prize awarded for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd places.
